ISC Mt. Laurel Volleyball Clinic will be run and coached by:

Allison Walker
Head Coach
Stockton University,
Owner and Head Coach
East Coach Volleyball club along with her team of coaches.

We offer a dynamic training environment where players will master the mental, physical, tactical and technical skills of the game. Players will develop and improve individual skills and team play guided by our coaching staff.

Our clinic is offered for players of all levels. Players will be placed in groups where they will be able to compete and grow.

This all-skills clinic consists of Individual and team drills. Our clinic is designed to teach fundamentals and provide an opportunity for individual skill development such as; serving, passing, defense, attacking, blocking and setting.

Players are taught conditioning exercises and drills used by high school and college players, as well as challenging and motivational techniques for the off-season.

It's the extra effort that turns good players into great players.

Participating in this clinic will enable you to truly become the best player you can be!!
